Privacy Statement

SAEG recognizes its obligation to protect the privacy and safety of its online guests. SAEG has developed these privacy and safety practices in order to maintain these standards.

1) Personal Information

SAEG will collect no personal information about you when you visit the Site unless you choose to provide that information to us. SAEG doesn't require any personal information for access to most of the Site. Any personal information that you provide by email or Web forms will be used only for such purposes as are described at the point of collection, such as to respond to your questions or comments, or to send information or products to you. If you provide contact information, SAEG staff or our contractors may contact you to clarify your comment or question, or to learn about your level of customer satisfaction with our services. SAEG uses user contact information to provide better products and service and to send you information or promotional materials you request. You may decline the opportunity to receive future mailings; your personal information will remain in our database, however. SAEG will not disclose any personal information to third parties except when it is required to complete a customer-requested transaction or delivery, or if a court subpoenas this information.

2) Protection of Children's Personal Information

This Site does not publish content that is targeted to children. It is a policy of SAEG that no information should be submitted to or posted at the SAEG Web site by children 16 years of age or under without the consent of a parent or guardian. This Site do not actively seek any demographic or preference information from children, nor will it ever disclose any personally identifying information regarding children to third parties.

3) Statistical vs. Personal Information

Some non-personal information may be collected and stored automatically when you visit the Site. If you do nothing during your visit but browse through the Web site, read pages or download information, we will gather and store certain information about your visit automatically. This information does not identify you personally. Our system collects data in the server log that may include IP address, domain name, type of browser, operating system, pages viewed, search requests, and if you linked to our site from another Web site, that Web site's address may be logged. We aggregate this data and use it for statistical purposes. For example, the aggregated data helps us to determine the volume of our Web site users' interest in areas of our Web site. It also helps us understand how we can improve the navigation and content of our Web site. We may disclose this to third parties, but only in an aggregated form.

4) Use of Cookies

Non-personal information may also be collected with the use of cookies. When someone visits the Site, a cookie may be placed on the user's machine (only if the visitor's Web browser has been set to accept cookies) or is read if the visitor has visited the site previously. This Site may collect aggregated site-visitation statistics using cookies. We do not track individuals' use of the site. If your browser is set to not accept cookies, you will be able to view most of the site; however, you may not be able to take advantage of personalized content, conveniences or services that may be offered on the site.

5) Password Protection

To protect against unauthorized access to your password and your computer, it is important that you log out when you have completed your business on the Site on a shared computer.

6) Security

This Site will provide commercially available, reasonable security measures. However, you understand and acknowledge that certain risks are inherent in transmission of information over the Internet and you agree to assume the security risk for transmission of the information you provide to use the Site. This Site may, at any time, revise these policies by updating this posting. Your continued use of the Site indicates your acceptance of all revisions. You should, therefore, periodically visit this page to review these policies for changes.
